APPLY IF

1. You value integrity. You walk your talk. You are eager to learn and able to receive feedback. You value humility, maturity, patience, loyalty, open mindedness and kindness.
2. You know the importance of calming your mind through nature, meditation, prayer or otherwise. You practice this daily.
3. You understand that we are wired for separation and you know that power only comes when we unite. You have some power over the separating programming of Ego and personality in your subconscious mind.
4. You have a sense of humor about yourself and life. You know you are not perfect and are okay with that.
5. You know by intuition or by research that there is so much more going on in our world then mainstream information tells us.
6. You have an internet connection that allows video calls on Zoom. You have access to Facebook, WhatsApp and YouTube. You speak English and have a laptop and smart phone.
7. A bonus could be if you have lived in multiple countries or have interacted much with people from multiple countries. You have had exposure outside the box of your cultural programming.

DON'T APPLY IF

1. You have no power in your word, are often late, impatient, rigid in your thinking, emotional in your behavior, break your promises easily, have no idea what it means to be responsible for your thoughts, feelings, attachments and expectations and find it difficult to apologize.
2. You only resonate with the money part of this post.

REMOTE VOLUNTEERING

We ask a 4 hour weekly commitment. You can pick when to make those hours. Your volunteering starts online by you getting to know us and allowing us to get to know you. We will have Welcome Packs to understand our work in more detail and we have Zoom sessions to start building the relationship. Later, if you would like that, the volunteering can become offline and there are options to volunteer abroad. You can check us out through volunteering and if you like who we are and what we do, then you can start the selection process for a partnership.

REMOTE & ON LOCATION PARTNERSHIPS

We work in a new paradigm. We will sit down and co-create the terms of working together in a way that leaves you empowered, enabled and inspired. We will share with you our financial incentive system and co-create, the time you will spend on contributing your unique gift, your work location, your starting date and more. Practicals can always be worked out when the relationship is in place. We start our intake sessions by having you join on Zoom so we can get to know one another. We start with relationship building.

Our intention is to form a life long collaboration with mutual value exchange. Not only can we get you financial incentives, we can actually support you in becoming financially free. Most people have too much baggage of the past to recognize a unique opportunity that sounds too good to be true. We look for the few that have done their inner work, can transcend that instant judgment and therefore still have the ability to trust.

APPLICATION OPEN – 2024

In the 24 years of pursuing the Sustainable World Project, the Founder has learned few lessons and build few unique and resourceful relationships. This can make the promises made here come true. We don't expect to convince you here. We don't believe in convincing people. We trust that in the personal interaction in our online intake / selection process on Zoom you will find out for yourself whether you are inspired to team up or not. Both options are completely valid. In life find what resonates with your heart and pursue that with great determination.

You can take some months in our intake process to figure out who we are and what we do. That way both sides can peacefully come to a choice of moving forward or not.

If you would like to take the next step for volunteering or getting into a partnership, then click on the following link to receive your very first Welcome Pack – <http://www.sustainableworldproject.com/downloads/Welcome%20Pack%20Day%201.pdf>. This pack will bring you an invite to our WhatsApp group. Here we announce our weekly sessions on Zoom where we can get to know one another in a fun, inspiring and stress free way! ;) See you soon!

Richard
